

GRANDPA'S SMILE

Amy was glad to be in Michigan. Each June her family went there. [Last/ They/ Easy] had a cabin there. It was [if/ on/ me] a big lake. There were always [of/ and/ fun] things to do there. This year Amy [wanted/ bottle/ before] to learn to water ski.

Amy [was/ had/ put] tried to ski before. She could [never/ being/ grand] get up. Everyone told her different [near/ than/ tips]. She never remembered the tips. It [was/ an/ if] too hard just to keep her [were/ skis/ know] from sinking. She had seen her [aunt/ easy/ from] ski from the dock. Her aunt [her/ try/ sat] down. She put her skis on [top/ off/ way] of the water. Then the boat [than/ from/ went] and she stood up. It all [looked/ better/ because] easy. Amy tried that last year. Amy [him/ got/ put] all ready. It was better than [every/ being/ could] in the water. Then the boat [hour/ duck/ took] off. Amy went face first into [the/ all/ you] lake. She knew then, there was [at/ me/ no] easy way to learn to water [for/ dot/ ski]. This year Amy was sure she [other/ could/ three] ski. All of her problems last [year/ what/ than] made her mad. She had to [cabin/ under/ learn] to ski! Amy wanted to try [skiing/ helped/ never] every day. Her family didn't think [she/ got/ ran] would.

The cabin was three hours [they/ know/ from] Amy's grandpa's house. All the way Amy [wanted/ talked/ skiing] about what she wanted to do [at/ or/ up] the lake. Mostly she talked about [think/ water/ stood] skiing. Her grandpa had a funny [asked/ push/ smile] on his face. Amy didn't know [why/ too/ she].

It was a sunny day. It [him/ the/ was] a great day to try skiing. [Was/ Got/ The] ride seemed extra long to Amy [today/ would/ hurry]. They finally got to the cabin. Amy [morning/ quickly/ problem] helped unpack the car. Then she [asked/ moved/ small] if she could go skiing. She [for/ saw/ jet] her grandpa's funny smile again. She [clean/ still/ watch] didn't know what it meant. Her [grandpa/ inside/ houses] finished his job. Then he said [am/ to/ he] would take her. Her dad wanted [of/ to/ is] ride too. Amy ran to get [aim/ her/ buy] suit on. Her dad and grandpa [hope/ shed/ went] out to the boat with the [find/ were/ skis].

Amy went down the long dock. [She/ Got/ Out] was thinking about how to ski. [How/ For/ She] got into the water. The boat [could/ moved/ talks] near to her. Her dad gave [her/ see/ use] the skis. She began to put [are/ got/ the] skis on. Then she understood her grandpa's [pulls/ would/ smile]! These were new skis!! They were [smaller/ grandpa/ finally]. They were made for kids her [use/ off/ age]! She hurried to put them on. [She/ Way/ Ran] wanted to see if they were [wanted/ easier/ pulled] to use.

Amy held onto the [days/ rope/ sure]. The boat pulled the rope snug. Amy [gave/ hope/ most] the "OK" sign. Off they went. Amy [these/ every/ stood] right up! She was skiing!! Her [didn't/ decide/ summer's] wish had come true!
